

Mathematics Strands

The adjacent charts display the percentage of performance expectations for each strand within the grade levels identified.

Please note, the chart treats each performance expectation within one grade as equivalent without taking into consideration that some performance expectations will have greater instructional implications.

